

I am against Broadband Over Power Lines - this will negatively impact communications on MW and SW frequencies for both consumers and for commercial and governmental users. I am heavily involved in emergency communications in support of DOMS, FEMA, and other customers, and rely almost exclusively on MW and HF frequencies. To have any additional barrier in any form, including interference from Broadband Over Power Line emissions, will cripple our emergency services and Homeland Security resources.